Resolution 1 (Delay in submission of Ph. D. Thesis)

In continuation to earlier DRC dated: 29-05-2019 regarding delay in submission of Ph.D. thesis, the concerned scholar, Mr. Younis Ahmad Shah, was called by the DRC vide letter No.f(DRC/Ph.d Scholar)Com/KU/19 dated 30-05-2019 to explain delay in submission of his thesis. Concerned scholar explained the reasons of delay in submission of thesis which are also mentioned in his representation dated 12-05-2019. After listening him carefully for 1.5 hours, the matter was discussed and deliberated upon and the consensus emerged on following two points:-

1. That concerned scholar has given all the four required presentations related to his topic of research dated: 22-04-2016; 15-03-2017; 29-07-2017; and 24-10-2017.
2. That the Department has sent the soft version of the thesis to Allama Iqbal Library for checking the plagiarism which falls within prescribed limits (7% plagiarism reported).

In view of the above, DRC resolved as under:-

1. That the same thesis (plagiarism checked) be accepted for submission.
2. That concerned supervisor be asked to sign the thesis without any change in the thesis for further course of action under statutes.
3. That in case concerned supervisor declines to sign the thesis, then Head of the Department will accept the submission of thesis without supervisor's signature.
4. That after completing necessary formalities, the thesis be forwarded to Dean, School of Business Studies, who will submit the panel of examiners directly to HVC for approval and further evaluation process will be carried by the Dean, School of Business Studies.
5. That to avoid further delay, the next DRC will be held on 03-06-2019 at 11:30 am for supervisor's response.

The meeting ended with a vote of thanks to the chair.
