

Costing Practices in Steel Industry

In view of great significance of Steel in the national building, the management of Steel manufacturing and distribution has been undertaken by Steel Authority of India Ltd. in India Its Director Finance, Mr. Bashir Masoodi (CMA) was invited to deliberate upon various issues and processes of steel making and its cost computations. The learned speaker discussed in detail various practices which are undertaken for cost management of the steel. Having working experience of about 30 years in various steel plants, the speaker shared with the students the real life experiences of cost management at the operational as well as strategic level.